

Round 4 of 2024/5 SuperQuaich series took place on Saturday the 18th of January. It saw Bike Trossachs introducing a new course and venue at Gartmore House. A tough technical and physical challenge in the grounds of the picturesque Gartmore House.

Stirling Bike Club was well represented in the Tross Cross SQ 4 Female Category with a place on the podium for Janine Inman (pictured on the right) who enjoyed the company of fellow SBC riders Lorna Macarthur and Alison Brown.

In the A race Steven Smith finished just outside the top 10 while ensuring SBC was represented in every race was David Hogg who competed in the in the B race.

The races featured many faces familiar to SBC such as Lettie MacDonald pictured on the left.

More Cyclo-cross to come with:

HUPcc Scottish Cyclo-Cross Series Finale - Chatelherault on Sun 23/02/25 at Chatelherault Country Park enter via British Cycling or come along and bang a pot/ring a bell in support of the riders.

Strathallan Castle CX 2025 on Sun 02/03/25 at Strathallan Castle, Auchterarder where there is even an E-bike class. This is billed as a truly family friendly event.

More Information on SuperQuaich Facebook

Want to know what else is going on in the world of cycling? Searching on British Cycling is a good start.

More Information on Stirling Bike Club

<https://stirlingbikeclub.org.uk>

- British Cycling
- Facebook
- Flickr
- Instagram
- Strava